

IT HAPPENS®

INSURANCE & INVESTMENT ADVISERS

Roll on 2011

What a year it has been:

- Collapsed finance companies
- The Christchurch earthquake
- The Pike River Mine disaster

As New Zealanders, we have had confirmation of just how resilient we really are. As a small country, I'm sure you will know someone who has been affected by these events.

It certainly brings out the fighting spirit and compassion we feel for each other.

Financial Advisers Act

I am still studying hard to achieve the AFA (Authorised Financial Adviser) qualification. This will enable me to provide a better service to my clients and referrals.

Some financial advisers are choosing not to become authorised and are staying as registered advisers only. However, registered advisers are not qualified to provide a full service.

Bridal Shoes

One of my client's, Cherry Sonderer has taken over a bridal shoe business.

She can be contacted at: www.trousseaubridal.co.nz and Facebook:

One of her favourite Christmas treats is Pavlova – You can download the recipe at Countdowns website

Did you know that the Pavlova has recently been described in the Oxford English Dictionary as being invented in New Zealand and NOT Australia? Click the image below for the great Pavlova debate!

Have a safe and Happy Christmas and even better New Year.
