

IT HAPPENS®

INSURANCE & INVESTMENT ADVISERS

HAPPY EASTER!

What a wonderful summer we have had!

Financial Advisers Act 2008

I have had to take time out to concentrate on my exams to qualify as an Authorised Financial Adviser by 1 July 2011.

This qualification is issued by the Securities commission.

I apologise if I have not been as quick to respond to your emails. I have employed an administrative person 2 days per week to keep in touch with you.

On a brighter note I only have 2 exams to go to pass.

Japan and Christchurch Earthquake

My thoughts are with the people of Japan and Christchurch as I'm sure yours are. I have a couple of clients in Christchurch and am working with them to get back on their feet.

EASTER

I contacted a couple of clients who cook all the time to arrange a Hot Cross bun recipe for you - one said Countdown and the other said Bakers Delight!
So I thought these looked gorgeous!

You have probably seen this Easter joke but I thought it was funny!!

Have a safe and Happy Easter!
